

Meaning ? Value ?
Good bye !
Don't try to be perfect. Just enjoy.

What will they think...?
Who cares?
Create your own stage!

Hi!
My name is Yuko Weiner. Currently I am practicing social distancing in Brooklyn.

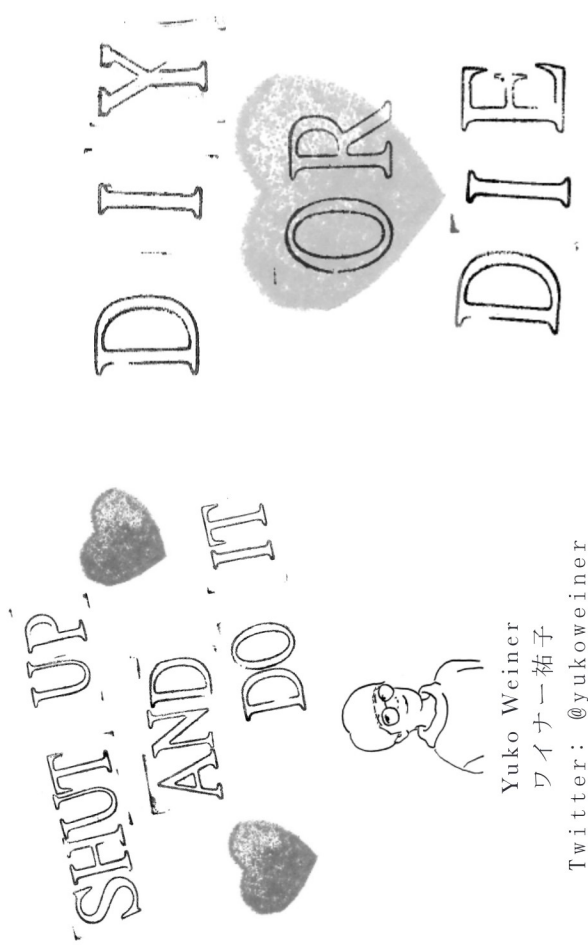

What do you feel about "creative" or "art"?
Do you think it's something far from you?

DIY or Die is my motto.
Believing in myself, not relying on any authority. It is punk.

The minute you start create something, your life change. You start to understand how all the creative people think. Then, you will see those products you have consumed in a new perspective. Yay, you are no longer a consumer!

Well, even if you don't think that way, creating is a simple joy, too.
I am sure, when you were kid, you wanted to show your project to someone.
Forget about failure, or judgement. DIY or Die!

LOVE,
Yuko Weiner
